

Ord Minnett's online reporting backed up by Praemium

Monday, 16 Oct 2006 11:57AM

Praemium Portfolio Services has picked up another local wealth management client, entering into a partnership to provide support services for Ord Minnett's new online portfolio reporting system.

Arthur Naoumidis, managing director of Praemium, said "We are very pleased to be working with Ord Minnett, one of Australia's longest established wealth management firms and a respected name in the Australian financial services industry".

An Ord Minette spokesperson added, "We felt it fit in well with our own service, which is a bells and whistles service, available for all of our customers. Their's [Praemium's] is a back to basics service so it supports our own structure as well as offering our clients a greater range."

Kate Hage