Part 4 - Instructions to redeem or retain the estate

As the estate's administrator you are able to make the decision regarding the deceased account holder's investments. Please select one option below:

Full withdrawal (account closure).

Keep the account open.

Please note: If you select to keep the account open, any changes to the account name must be supported by relevant originally certified documents, (e.g. an updated trust deed in the case of addition/removal of trustees for super funds).

Part 5 - Updating the client bank details

It is Praemium's policy to pay all withdrawal proceeds by direct credit to a bank account in the name of the estate or the solicitor's trust. Requests for payment to third parties will not be actioned.
