About this document

Objectives

The aim of this document is to set out the charter for the Remuneration & Nomination Committee.

Scope

This charter has been approved by the Board of Directors of Praemium Limited ('the Board').

1. Constitution

1.1. The Remuneration & Nomination Committee has been established by resolution of the Board.

2. Membership

- 2.1 The Remuneration & Nomination Committee shall be appointed by the Board from among the non-executive Directors of the Company and shall consist of not less than three members with the majority being independent Directors.
- 2.2 Directors will be appointed to the Remuneration & Nomination Committee for a term of three years or such shorter time as they remain in the office of Director. Directors may not serve consecutive terms on the Remuneration & Nomination Committee.

3. Chairman

3.1. The Board will appoint an independent Director as the Chairman of the Committee. It is preferred that the Chairman of the Board not be appointed to this role.

4. Secretary

4.1. The Company Secretary shall be the Secretary of the Remuneration & Nomination Committee.

5. Quorum

5.1. A quorum shall be two members.

6. Meeting Frequency

6.1. Remuneration & Nomination Committee meetings will be held not less than once a year to enable the Committee to undertake its role effectively.

7. Purpose

- 7.1. The Purpose of the Remuneration & Nomination Committee is to assist the Board and the Group Managing Director in preparing and overseeing appropriate remuneration policies. Ultimate responsibility for remuneration policy rests with the Board.
- 7.2. The Remuneration & Nomination Committee is also responsible for overseeing nomination of board and committee members, to address board / committee succession issues and to ensure that the board / committees have the appropriate balance of skills, experience, independence and knowledge of the entity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.

8. Remuneration Duties

- 8.1. The duties of the Remuneration Committee are to:
 - a. assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities in respect of establishing appropriate remuneration levels and policies including incentive policies for Directors and senior executives;
 - b. assess the market to ensure that senior executives are being rewarded commensurate with their responsibilities;
 - c. obtain the best possible advice in establishing salary levels;
 - d. set policies for senior executives' remuneration;
 - review the recommendations of the Managing Director in respect to salary levels, KPIs and role descriptions of senior executives and make recommendations to the Board on any proposed changes;
 - f. review recommendations from the Managing Director relating to proposed merit increases for direct reports;
 - g. propose, for Board approval, the terms and conditions of employment for the Managing Director;
 - h. set the criteria for negotiating any enterprise bargain agreement;
 - review the Company's recruitment, retention and termination policies and procedures for senior management;
 - j. review and make recommendations to the Board on the Company's incentive schemes;
 - k. review and make recommendations to the Board on the Company's superannuation arrangements;
 - I. oversee the remuneration report as part of the corporate governance section for the Annual Report and for adoption at the Annual General Meeting; and
 - m. review the remuneration of both executive and non-executive Directors and make recommendations to the Board on any proposed changes.

9. Nomination Duties

- 9.1. In relation to Nomination duties, the Nomination Committee is responsible for:
 - n. appointing and replacing the Chair of the Board or the Chair of any committee;
 - considering whether the Board / Committees have the effective composition (skills, experience, expertise and diversity), size and commitment to adequately discharge its responsibilities and duties;
 - p. considering and making determinations regarding the appointment, re-election and retirement of Directors:
 - q. considering potential candidates for appointment as new Directors to the Board / Committees;
 - r. setting a formal and transparent procedure for selecting new Directors for appointment to the Board / Committees;
 - s. selecting new Directors for appointment to the Board / Committees following completion of a selection process agreed by the Board;
 - t. developing a plan for identifying, assessing, and enhancing Board / Committee competencies;
 - u. ensuring that there is an appropriate induction program in place for new Directors;
 - v. developing a process for evaluating the performance of the Board, its committees and Directors;
 - w. developing a succession plan for the Board / Committees and regularly reviewing the plan; and
 - x. if applicable, engaging an independent professional consultant to identify suitable candidates in a Director recruitment search process.

10. Authority

- 10.1. The Committee is authorised by the Board to investigate any activity within its charter.
- 10.2. The Committee is required to make recommendations to the Board on all matters within the Committee's charter.
- 10.3. The Committee discharges it responsibilities by making recommendations to the Board.
- 10.4. The Committee does not have any executive powers to commit the Board or Management to implementation of recommendations unless authorised by resolution of the Board.

- 10.5. The Committee is not responsible for supervising the performance of executives and must not become involved in day to day operations, management functions or decision making.
- 10.6. The Committee may obtain information from and consult with the Managing Director or other executive officer of the Company or any subsidiary entity, as and when it considers appropriate. The Committee will have access to management, auditors (external and internal, where applicable), Compliance Officers and external compliance consultants with or without management present, and has the right to seek explanations and additional information. It is authorised to seek any information it requires from any employees and all employees are directed to cooperate with any request made by the Committee. The Committee is authorised by the Board to obtain outside legal or other independent professional advice and to secure the attendance of outsiders with relevant experience and expertise if it considers this necessary.
- 10.7. The Committee shall, after notifying the Board or the Chairman of the Board and the Managing Director, have the ability to:
 - a. direct any special investigations;
 - b. seek advice of the entity's auditors or solicitors;
 - c. engage and consult independent experts where necessary to carry out its duties; and/or
 - d. commission and consult external reports and other documents.

11. Remuneration Policy

- 11.1. The Remuneration & Nomination Committee must review and make recommendations to the Board on:
 - a. The Group's remuneration, recruitment, retention and termination policies and procedures for senior executives;
 - b. Senior executive remuneration and incentives;
 - c. Superannuation arrangements; and
 - d. The remuneration framework for directors.
- 11.2. In doing so, the Remuneration & Nomination Committee must have regard to the way that the Praemium Remuneration Policy:
 - a. Motivates senior executives to pursue the long-term growth and success of the Group;
 - b. Demonstrates a clear relationship between senior executives' performance and remuneration;
 - c. Takes into account the guidelines set out in the ASX Corporate Governance Council's "Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations" (Principle 8).

12. Remuneration of Non-Executive Directors

12.1. In considering non-executive director remuneration, the Committee shall take into account the guidelines for appropriate practice in non-executive director remuneration of the ASX Corporate Governance Council's "Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations". To the extent that the Committee recommends that any equity incentive is given to any Non-Executive director it must obtain independent advice as to the appropriateness and quantum of that incentive taking into account the size of the Company, the Company's capacity to incentivise and remuneration quality Non-Executive directors, the risks associated with board membership, market and industry practices and any other matter that the Committee considers relevant at the time.

13. Reporting Procedures

- 13.1. The Secretary shall circulate the minutes of the meetings of the Remuneration & Nomination Committee to all members of the Committee for comment and change before being signed by the Chairman of the Committee.
- 13.2. The approved and signed minutes of the Remuneration & Nomination Committee are to be tabled at the Board meeting following the Remuneration & Nomination Committee meeting along with any recommendations of the Remuneration & Nomination Committee.

- 13.3. The minutes of the meetings of the Remuneration & Nomination Committee may be tabled at the next Board meeting for approval by members of the Remuneration & Nomination Committee, provided that all attendees at that meeting of the Remuneration & Nomination Committee meeting are present at the Board meeting.
- 13.4. The Remuneration & Nomination Committee must oversee the preparation of, and make recommendations to the Board, in respect of the reports and information required by the Corporations Act and the Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations in respect to Remuneration.
- 13.5. The Remuneration & Nomination Committee must ensure that a copy of this Charter and information about the Company's policy on prohibiting the hedging of incentives given to Directors under any equity based remuneration scheme are published and maintained on the Company's website.

14. Review

- 14.1. This Charter must be reviewed not less than annually. The Charter may only be amended with the approval of the Board following recommendation from the Committee.
- 14.2. The Committee shall prepare, and report to the Board, the results of an annual performance evaluation of the Committee, which shall compare the performance of the Committee with the requirements of this Charter.
